FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum includes information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes additional standard responses that apply to all requests for records on individuals. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records. For questions regarding Parts 1, 2, or 3, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." Previously mentioned appeal and dispute resolution services are also available at the web address.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) National Security/Intelligence Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of national security and foreign intelligence records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and PA exemption (j)(2) as applicable to requests for records about individuals [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2); 50 U.S.C. § 3024(i)(1)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that national security or foreign intelligence records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching those systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A reasonable search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled and maintained by the FBI in the course of fulfilling law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization and encompasses the records of FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ), FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide and includes Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records. For additional information about our record searches visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheets. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative "FBI file." An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) The National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private citizens cannot request a name check.

Date 12/10/64

Brigadier General DON FLICKINGER (U.S. Air Force, MC retired). Biomedical Research Consultant, Room 406, 1901 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., furnished the following information: WASH. D.C.

FLICKINGER has known JEANNINE CUSSON since 1957 when she was hostess at the Place Vendome restaurant located on 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. FLICKINGER said that he and later his wife have become quite friendly with CUSSON as the result of conversations with her while dining at the Rive Gauche Restaurant where she is now hostess.

FLICKINGER described CUSSON as being a very attractive and capable person who is popular with patrons of the Rive Gauche. He said the Rive Gauche is a rather exclusive restaurant and CUSSON is well known and on a conversational basis with a large number of highly prominent persons, including high ranking foreign diplomats.

FLICKINGER said it is his understanding that CUSSON

CUSSON has also spent some time with Dr. W. RANDOLPH LOVELACE, Director of the Lovelace Foundation in New Mexico, who has been a personal friend of the FLICKINGERS for many years.

According to FLICKINGER, LOVELACE first met CUSSON several years ago while dining at the Rive Gauche. Subsequent to that, he always appeared very friendly during conversations with her at the restaurant. FLICKINGER said that LOVELACE is an extremely busy person with heavy responsibilities and for years he has combined business with relaxation during his visits to Washington, D.C. He said that he knows that LOVELACE has met CUSSON for dinner at the Genghis Khan Restaurant and other Washington, D.C. restaurants during visits to this area. He said that to make any additional statement regarding any intimacies between LOVELACE and CUSSON would be inferential rather than factual.

FLICKINGER said he does not believe that LOVELACE is still seeing CUSSON other than during brief conversations with her while dining at the Rive Gauche. During the Spring of 1964, CUSSON commented to FLICKINGER that she would not be seeing "RANDY" any more. The last two times that LOVELACE was in Washington, D.C. and was to have dinner with FLICKINGER, he mentioned that he preferred to dine somewhere other than the Rive Gauche.

FLICKINGER said that at one time CUSSON seemed very fond of LOVELACE. However, during early 1964, she expressed concern to FLICKINGER regarding the drinking habits of LOVELACE. FLICKINGER was unable to recall her exact comments, but that CUSSON said something to the effect that she could not understand why LOVELACE had started drinking so much and suggested that FLICKINGER might want to speak to him about it as a friend.

With respect to CUSSON's comments, FLICKINGER said that he knows LOVELACE very well and is not of the opinion that he has a drinking problem. He said there are varying degrees of tolerance for alcohol and this tolerance can be influenced by a number of things, including pressure of business. During early 1964, just prior to his travel to the Soviet Union, LOVELACE was extremely busy and was involved in quite a few pressing matters. It was during this period that FLICKINGER was in his company several times when LOVELACE's speech seemed to be affected after just two or three drinks. In one instance LOVELACE was aware of this himself and commented to FLICKINGER that he was going to have to cut back on drinks and he did so. Since LOVELACE returned from the Soviet Union, FLICKINGER has seen him several times and has observed no indication that LOVELACE has a drinking problem to any degree.

FLICKINGER said he is well enough acquainted with CUSSON and has conversed with her enough to know that she was born in Poland. As a result of conversations she has with high placed U.S. Government officials, high ranking military officers and high level foreign diplomatic officials as a result of her employment, she would be in an ideal position to assist Soviet-bloc representatives in their intelligence program. However, FLICKINGER said he has never had any reason to think that CUSSON might be engaged in any such activity. He expressed the personal opinion that CUSSON is not the type of person who would be involved in anything of this nature. He said that CUSSON has always impressed him as being honest and forthright. In this regard, FLICKINGER pointed out that he does not feel CUSSON would have ever mentioned anything to him about LOVELACE's drinking if she had any intention of attempting to gain intelligence information through her association with LOVELACE.

FLICKINGER said he was unable to recall anything else which might be of interest concerning CUSSON.

On the same date, [redacted] (a former Bureau employee), Courtesy Inc., advised that FLICKINGER was a customer of Courtesy Inc. using their facilities approximately once a month. She advised that their records indicated that he is a consultant for USAF, Department of Defense, FAA, NASA, Aero Space Industries, and several ^{b25} universities. Since FLICKINGER is known to WFO in the aforementioned connection it is likely that in this instance he is the unknown driver of the vehicle and probably drove the Unsubs to the Embassy for business connected purposes.
